Transylvania Tour in Romania - Highlights

-Visit iconic Transylvanian cities: the medieval city of Brasov (the city of the Crown), Sighisoara (one of the best-preserved inhabited medieval citadels in Europe, UNESCO Heritage), and Sibiu (considered by Forbes as one of the most idyllic cities to live).

-Visit Alba Iulia – Apulum or „The City Of Gold”, a symbol of Romania where the Great Union took place on 1st December 1918.

-Visit impressive castles: Peles Royal Castle, the summer residence of the royal couple of Romania, also known as the pearl of the Carpathian and Corvin Castle, the Gothic masterpiece of Transylvania, one of the most impressive Gothic castles of Eastern and Central Europe, was home to movies and film festivals.

-Visit Turda Salt Mine – one of the oldest salt mines in the world, now an underground amusement. Business Insider placed the mine on top of their list of “coolest underground places in the world”.

Know before you book

Possible to upgrade to 4-star or 5-star hotels for an additional fee.

Peles Castle is closed on Mondays and Tuesdays throughout the year and will also be closed for general cleaning and preventive conservation from 3rd November to 2nd December, 2026. During this period, visitors will have the opportunity to visit Pelisor Castle instead.

Please note that the order of visits may vary depending on the weather, traffic conditions, and seasonal schedules (summer/winter)

1. Where does the tour start and finish?

2. Which places will be visited on the first day of the itinerary?

3. What happens if customers cannot attend the tour the booked day?

4. What can customers do if Peles Castle is not open?

5. Why can the sequence of visits change during the trip?
