Euroword

Euroword 10

A. Name of the man who is considered the most important scientist of the 20th century, discoverer of the "theory of relativity".

    Albert Einstein

B. French city, where the Garonne River flows into the Atlantic Ocean, famous for its wines

    Bordeaux

C. Greece's largest and southernmost island

    Crete

D. Greek nymph who became a laurel to escape the harassment of the god Apollo.

    Daphne

E. Ancient civilization, located in present-day Tuscany, hegemonic in the Italic Peninsula before Roman rule

    Estruscans or Etruria

F. European country in which the Brittany region is located.

    France

(Containing the) G. Capital of the Czech Republic

    PraGue

(Containing the) H. U.S. plan for the reconstruction of Europe after World War II

    MarsHall (Plan)

I. Name of the peninsula in which Portugal, Spain and Andorra are located.

    Iberic

J. The roman name given to the Greek goddess Hera

    Juno

K. The "K" of UK

    Kingdom

L. Official name of the different German Federal States

    Land / Länder

M. A word of French origin applied to the head waiter or head waitress of a restaurant

    Maître

N. City in the south of Italy where the margherita pizza was born

    Naples

O. The highest mountain in Greece and where the gods, presided over by Zeus, were believed to live.

    Olympus

P. First name of the Spanish film director who in 1999 won the Oscar for best foreign language film with "All about my mother".

    Pedro Almodóvar

EUROPE DIRECT

Q. Title of the current Danish monarch, head of the State and the Autonomous Territories

    Queen

R. Westernmost continental point of Europe

    Roca, Cape of (Portugal)

S. River crossing Paris

    Seine

T. Southernmost continental point of the EU

    Tarifa (Spain)

U. German city where the highest cathedral in the world is located

    Ulm

V. Volcano that buried the Italian city of Pompeii in 79 AD.

    Vesuvius

(Containing the) W. English writer, author of "Alice in Wonderland".

    LeWis Carroll

(Containing the) X. Separation of a person from the land in which he or she lives, usually for political reasons.

    Exile

(Containing the) Y. Famous French-Belgian cartoon character set in the "Wild West".

    LuckY Luke

(Containing the) Z. Islands belonging to Portugal

    AZores