

Euroword

Euroword 1

A. The most populated Autonomous Community of Spain.

Andalusia

B. Dynasty to which the King of Spain belongs.

Bourbon

C. Fortified building typical of the Middle Ages.

Castle

D. The process by which European colonies such as Vietnam, India or the Congo gained independence from their metropolises.

Decolonisation

E. The highest dignity obtained by Napoleon in 1804.

Emperor

F. Country in which the revolution of 1789 took place, leading to the beginning of the Contemporary Age.

France

G. A physical principle developed by Newton that explains why a body thrown upwards falls back down.

Gravity

H. Those who deviated from the doctrine of the Catholic Church and were persecuted for it by the Inquisition.

Heretics

I. A volcanic island in northwestern Europe that is not a member of the European Union

Iceland

J. Virtue represented by a blindfolded woman with scales in one hand and a sword in the other.

Justice

K. Turkish snack eaten all over Europe.

Kebab

L. The city where Sherlock Holmes used to live.

London

M. The North African region composed by Libya, Tunis, Algeria, Morocco and Western Sahara.

Maghrib

N. Capital of Cyprus

Nicosia

O. The high institution of the EU is in charge of watching and guaranteeing the compliance of the EU citizens' rights.

Ombudsman

P. The institution responsible for the representations of the EU's citizens.

EUROPE DIRECT

European Parliament

Q. The unforgettable British band led by Freddy Mercury.

Queen

R. Political regime established in Spain on 14th April 1931, following the reign of Alfonso XIII.

Republic, The Second

S. European capital with a women name

Sofia

T. Country whose capital was once called Constantinople and which is a candidate for accession to the European Union.

Turkey or Türkiye

U. German town where the tallest church in the world is located.

Ulm

V. The Italian city which once led a maritime republic with lots of possessions in the Eastern Mediterranean

Venice

W. The capital of Poland.

Warsaw

X. Hatred, rejection, or hostility towards the foreigner

Xenophobia

Y. The food, usually eaten as a dessert, and which is the Bulgarian and Greek delicacy par excellence.

Yoghurt

Z. The ideology, promoted by Theodor Herzl, that sought to build a Jew independent State.

Zionism

EUROPE DIRECT