

Euroword

Euroword 2

A. Roman construction that served to transport water between two elevated points, saving an unevenness, as a valley...

Aqueduct

B. Composer of the Ode to Joy, official hymn of the European Union

Beethoven

C. Surname of the writer that appears on the Spanish 10 cent coins

Cervantes (Miguel de)

D. Roman goddess associated to hunting and whose Greek equivalent is Artemis.

Diana

E. Official currency of Germany

Euro

F. Name of the husband of Isabella, the Catholic Monarch of Spain

Ferdinand

G. European country whose islands are bathed by the Aegean Sea

Greece

H. Name of the young wizard who is the protagonist of J.K. Rowling's most famous saga

Harry (Potter)

I. Religion of Prophet Muhammad

Islam

J. First name of the German composer Bach.

Johann

K. The snake that threatens Mowgli in "The Jungle Book"

Kaa

L. Capital of Portugal and city where a Treaty that gave a greater role to European citizenship was signed.

Lisbon

M. Geographical representation of a part of the earth's surface

Map

N. Name of the French Emperor defeated at the Battle of Waterloo

Napoleon.

O. Competitions that took place in ancient Greece every four years

Olympiads

P. River that flows through the North of Italia, from the Alps to the Adriatic Sea.

Po

(It contains the) Q. Latin expression that means "Where are you going?", also a historical novel about the

EUROPE DIRECT

Emperor Nero and film with 8 Oscar nominations.

Quo Vadis

R. The name given to languages derived from Vulgar Latin, such as Spanish, French, Catalan, Italian or Portuguese.

Romance languages

S. Name of the patron saint of Spain, whose tomb is the destination of a famous pilgrimage route in the North of this country

Santiago

T. Region of Romania from which Count Dracula originated.

Transylvania

U. Irish rock band led by its singer Bono.

U2

V. Vesuvius, Etna, Teide and Eyjafjalla (Iceland) are...

Volcanoes.

W. Name of the most famous English writer, surnamed Shakespeare, who is said to have died on April 23, 1616 like Cervantes, the date commemorating Book Day

William

(It contains the) X. The name of the Germanic peoples that in the first centuries of the Middle Ages invaded or migrated to Great Britain with the Angles and the Jutes.

Saxons

Y. Former European country that integrated the current Slovenia, Serbia, Croatia, North Macedonia, Montenegro and Bosnia-Herzegovina.

Yugoslavia

Z. In Greek mythology, name of the king of all the gods, which Roman mythology called Jupiter.

Zeus

EUROPE DIRECT