

Euroword

Euroword 4

A. Southern French region with Bordeaux as its capital

Aquitaine

B. European capital known as "Paris of the East" or "Pearl of the Danube".

Budapest

C. One of the three major institutions of the European Union, consisting of one representative from each country and representing the equivalent of the EU's executive power.

Commission

D. English writer, author of the stories "Oliver Twist" and "A Christmas Carol".

Dickens (Charles)

E. Statistical Office of the European Union

Eurostat

F. Region in the north of Belgium, cradle of great painters and diamond-producing area

Flanders

G. German poet who wrote "Faust" and whose name has been adopted by the German Institute for Culture Abroad.

Goethe

H. Capital of Finland

Helsinki

(Containing the) I. European Waltz capital

Vienna

J. Ireland's most famous writer, author of works such as "Dubliners" and "Ulysses"

James Joyce

K. Austrian painter, author of the famous painting "The Kiss", by name Gustav

Klimt

L. The first of the values of the revolutionary motto of the French Revolution

Liberty, (equality and fraternity)

M. The smallest country in the EU

Malta

N. German city where the trials that judged the authorities of the Third Reich were held.

Nürnberg

O. European impartial body that helps people, businesses, and organisations facing problems with the EU's administration

Ombudsman

P. All people inhabiting the Earth or any geographic division thereof.

Population

Q. Official residence of the President of the Italian Republic

Quirinal Palace

EUROPE DIRECT

(Containing the) R. Capital de Slovakia
BRatislava

S. Country where Nobel Prizes are awarded Sweden

T. Capital de Estonia
Tallinn

(Containing the) U. EU member state located on an island at the south-easternmost point of the EU.
CyprUs

V. Typical Austrian musical composition, danceable, famous for pieces such as "The Blue Danube" or "Viennese Blood".
Waltz

W. German composer, conductor, playwright and poet, author of "The Ring of the Nibelung".
Wagner (Richard)

(Containing the) X. Capital of Luxemburg
LuXemburg

(Containing the) Y. Large country with a small part of its territory located in Europe, where, besides, there is the most populous city of the European continent
TurkeY or Türkiye

(Containing the) Z. Surname of the Austrian composer and pianist, master of classicism and author of "The Magic Flute".
MoZart

EUROPE DIRECT