

Euroword

Euroword 8

A. Goddess of Love in Greek Mythology

Aphrodite

B. Famous and exquisite crystal from the Czech Republic, a word that is also sometimes applied to the way of life of an artist.

Bohemia

C. Eastern European mountain range forming a large arc along the borders of Austria, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Poland, Serbia, Ukraine, Romania and northern Hungary.

Carpathians

D. Greek currency before the adoption of the euro

Drachma

E. Volcano located on the Italian island of Sicily

Etna

F. Public space in ancient Roman cities with commercial, financial, religious and judicial functions.

Forum

G. Given name of the Scottish scientist and inventor of the telephone.

Graham Bell

H. Son of the god Zeus who carried out the Twelve Labours.

Heracles

I. Epopeya griega y poema más antiguo escrito por Homero

Ilíada

J. Character created by Shakespeare in love with Romeo

Juliet

(Containing the) K. Greek recipe similar to lasagna, with layers of minced meat, eggplant and tomato, covered with bechamel sauce and baked.

MusaKa

L. First name of the famous painter of the Mona Lisa and the name of a training program for young people in the European Union.

Leonardo

M. Surname of Robert Schuman's political advisor and inspirer of the Schuman Plan from which today's European Union was born.

Monnet (Jean)

N. Open sea connected to the Atlantic by the English Channel

North Sea

O. Type of musical show performed at La Scala in Milan

Opera

EUROPE DIRECT

P. A kind of traditional Italian cake, made with kneaded wheat flour, topped with cheese, fried tomato and other ingredients such as anchovies, olives...

Pizza

Q. Name of the knight created by Cervantes famous for his adventures with Sancho Panza

Quixote

R. Mechanical puzzle cube whose faces are divided into squares of the same color created in Hungary.

Rubik

S. Surname of the English playwright and poet author of, among other works, "Hamlet", "Othello" or "A Midsummer Night's Dream".

Shakespeare

T. Perennial and bulbous plant, whose main producer is the Netherlands.

Tulip

U. Name of the mountain range considered to be the natural border between Europe and Asia

Urals Mountains

V. Italian city known for its canals, carnivals and international film festival

Venice

W. Where Lewis Carroll's Alice lived.

Wonderland

(Containing the) X. Social situation of economic, professional or political disadvantage caused by the difficulty of integrating into the social system.

EXclusion

Y. The color of the stars on the EU flag

Yellow

Z. Ukrainian city on the shores of the Dnieper River, famous for hosting the largest nuclear power plant in Europe.

Zaporizhzhia

EUROPE DIRECT