The Birth

Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra was born in Alcalá de Henares, next to the Hospital de Tavera, where the writer’s father, Rodrigo de Cervantes, was in surgery. The property is situated in the historic city of Alcalá de Henares, next to the Hospital de Tavera, which was the site of Rodrigo de Cervantes’s surgery. The museum also has a room dedicated to the famous surgeon, who was actually the master of this property. Miguel de Cervantes was born on 9 October that same year, as confirmed by his birth certificate at the now lost Church of Santa María la Mayor on 9 October that same year, as confirmed by his birth certificate (1547). He was baptised at the Church of la Consolación of Alcalá de Henares (Madrid) in 1547. He was baptised at the Church of la Consolación of Alcalá de Henares (Madrid) in 1547. He was baptised at the Church of la Consolación of Alcalá de Henares (Madrid) in 1547.

The Heroic and Exemplary Life

At the age of 37 he met the great love of his life, Dolores Robles de Robles. At the age of 37 he met the great love of his life, Dolores Robles de Robles. While returning to Spain by sea (1575), he was wounded in the chest and arm. While returning to Spain by sea (1575), he was wounded in the chest and arm. Miguel de Cervantes was born in Alcalá de Henares on 9 October that same year, as confirmed by his birth certificate (1547).

The room dedicated to the exemplary life of Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra, is an eminently female realm, divided into three separate spaces: the children’s chamber, the dressing and dressing room, and the private parlour. It is a scenographic display featuring the characters, scenery and a dramatised staging of the same material. It is a scenographic display featuring the characters, scenery and a dramatised staging of the same material. The women and children slept in different rooms. The women and children slept in different rooms. The room dedicated to the exemplary life of Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra, is an eminently female realm, divided into three separate spaces: the children’s chamber, the dressing and dressing room, and the private parlour.