VISIT AGRA!

Agra is one of India's most exciting cities. It is situated in the north of India and is easily reached from the capital, Delhi, and from Jaipur, India's famous "Pink City" with its beautiful palaces.

The Taj Mahal This has to be the cultural icon of India! Built between the years 1631 and 1643, this grand white marble structure symbolizes the love one of the rulers of India, Shahjahan, had for his wife, Mumtaz Mahal, who died in 1631. It is a truly breathtaking sight and will make any visit to India an unforgettable experience. Open from sunrise to sunset, from Saturday to Thursday. Foreign tourists pay 750 rupees entrance fee and children under 15 are free. Leave all your food, mobile phones, etc. at the entrance.

The Red Fort The Red Fort was built by three different rulers from 1565 until the middle of the 17th century. Its huge, stone walls are 20 metres high, and although it was first built for military uses, other buildings, including palaces, were added later. The Musamman Burj tower is particularly beautiful. Entrance fee for foreigners is 300 rupees, children under 15 free.

While in Agra, enjoy some tasty, spicy food in one of the many excellent restaurants. We recommend kufli, the delicious sweet Indian ice cream!
